

Will

Yesterday in street corner light,
Attitude and jacket tight,
For all the world looking for trouble –
Today got some for you double.

Haitian children hungry homeless,
Earth a fever the cradle a mess –
In you intelligence and history converge,
Human achievement struggles emerge.

Creative spirit business sense,
Defining what matters present tense –
Years taking a glorious twist,
Getting back to what you wished.

Priorities reorganize minds bend,
Chaos or skullduggery's end –
Ever so gently take our hand,
At the altar we'll understand.
