

missing

catch us up
in your storytelling Venus
take us upstairs
one more time
remind us sacred names
unmask our faces
unhide our fears

tell us visions
sunlight cross the room enswirl us in webs of characters in this garden dance valleys, mountains, wings
rain

future us fragile earthlings free of our chains
closer to our intentions rising as we once did in the spell of falling stars

a case of Love like yours up from under ground
dignity, kindness, charm unexpected meant to be
from morning promises
to evening grace
