lake cabins, ocean balconies, patios, decks, porches boarded windows, sidewalk glass dwelling places moments speak tell us how we care about One Another warm rain reaches underground each heart secrets hope stamen pistil scented petals invite favorite dream no one forces birds to sing butterflies emerge transcendent, vulnerable promises remembered the Human Spirit nests in shadows in the Mind of the Universe in the Mind of God in a Natural intelligence.

The Self-as-Separate Narrative is easily discredited.
    The advocacy of power-over-others can be left behind.
A true democracy, true equality, peace and justice a real World of Loving One Another wait within the realm of our Possibility.

Waits on the sacrifices only billionaires and the upper class can make waits on the difference only you can make waiting on the unbelievable in some Minds a miracle no need to list all that could be done what you choose to do, adds to it
