

Freya

Woven with threads of misty morns,
Summer memories / turquoise adorns –
Bringing the waking Season near,
Signs the skies may soon start to clear.

Likely inspired by the Great River,
Or else an arrow from Cupid's quiver –
A wholly Other point of view,
Possibility the World anew.

Listening to the Songbirds Garden voice,
Violets, fresh leaves, Children rejoice –
Nest builder, irrepressible Heart,
Home and family help you do your part.

Natural Intelligence with roots reaching back,
The Altruism-Sacrifice evolutionary track –
Talking with the Ground / planting seeds,
Creating the Miracle Mother Earth needs.
