There may have been some time before,
Heaven opened wide the door –
The Bang they say began the celebration,
Then through now unending Creation.

Choice from the ground to the skies above,
Your being's about that kind of Love –
Garden creature / mind for the possible,
Spring again in a World improbable.

Pluralistic, inclusive, Life in motion,
Leaving behind Self-as-Separate notion –
Choosing relationship, participation,
A hand in creating the great bifurcation.

Good at options, starting things going,
Blending intuition with reasoned knowing –
Waking us to ourselves, our Living Nest,
People have the Power to clean up the mess.
