

Pharrell

Beloved sun blazes the morning sky,
Wakes the sleeping / birds, flora, every eye –
Where rains make daybreak just a glimmer,
You cast rainbows / sparklets shimmer.

Spreading forgiveness / dispersing clouds,
Venus persuaded Time you be allowed –
Lunar garden sacred ties,
Leaps to rescue hearing cries.

Forward moving down Love's track,
Vernal energy no turning back –
Glowing with possibility / alive with kindness,
Intentional / compassionate / high mindness.

Utopia's prominent in your psychic map,
Key here is the need to adapt –
Teach that love can't get enough,
Given humankind's state so rough.
