

Laura

Welcomed wind from sacred lands,
Spangled skies / endless sands –
Where integrity matters / kindness the norm,
Food for the hungry / shelter from storm.

Providing a place for hope to perch,
Doing the work / late hour search –
Assertive, dedicated, friend of Earth,
Upgrading estimates of human worth.

Laughter and smiles likely well known,
Strength if you need to go it alone –
Where it's headed, the larger perspective,
Helping others among prime objectives.

Genius at seeing how the pieces fit,
Venus that morning the sunrise lit –
Lavender dawn dispersing our fear,
Brightening horizon / day must be near.
