

Nina

Up in the mountains, off the main road,
Still in drifts, for weeks it had snowed –
Nestled in pines and solitude,
Unexpected interlude.

Reliable, hardworking, many best friends,
Careful storyteller where history's path ends –
Decoding narratives, deconstructing scripts,
Meaningful long term relationships.

Quiet the deer trails, asleep the forest,
Perfect host / welcomed guest –
Even when everything seems going wrong,
You remind us how we belong.

Saturn suggests that, with your integrity,
What your Life says about human dignity –
There must be a way beyond this abyss,
Words left unspoken or until now missed.
