Raindrop rivulets window wonder,
Memories lightning crackling thunder –
News the world/that sound gives him pause,
Knows somewhere exists a cause.

Narrative field work/long night shift,
Mountain lake words writer's gift –
Updating agency stories events,
Dream shared/wholly other sense.

Practical/honest/someone to talk with,
From phase transitions to archetypal myths –
More than transforming the explanation,
Creating passageways to emancipation.

Every line written/book ever read,
All in their own way this moment led –
We've known what we want/just not how,
If not to altruism, where else turn now?
