Among Summer's welcomed guests,
Stellar Storyteller self-confessed –
Scientific, edgy, captivating tales,
Elaborating reality including travails.

After breakfast round the table,
Ship in a storm / a captain stable –
Citing the evidence / unmasking history,
Reason, logic, a place for mystery.

Adaptable / multi-skilled / purely eclectic,
Wordsmith creating feelings electric –
Not one to bury unanswered questions,
Not going to be easy, Saturn mentions.

Heat waves, compounds, machinations,
We need your "there's-a-way" inspirations –
To grasp the Crisis engulfing our Times,
Accept responsibility for the Living Lines.
