FOREST morning river walk,
To a place where friends can talk –
Silver where the sunlight dances,
Onyx where a shadow chances.

Venus loves how adaptive you are,
 Conversing about the near and far –
 Gemini's tend to think things twice,
 Consider both sides, choice and dice.

To the point, never lost,
Lots of experience with a Miracle's cost –
Apparent the goal you've in sight,
The things you do, ways you write.

Though progress now faces a narrative wall,
It's only words after all –
Hardwork, perseverance, you already know,
Intrinsic to getting where you want to go.
