FORESTS were only slowly waking,
Roof to floor, Winter's spell breaking –
Trickles, brooks, canyons, streams,
Unstoppable cascading dreams.

THE highway followed the river down,
Quieted to hear its untamed sound –
A Life of Possible, an open Mind,
Evolution Enlightenment Love aligned.

ANEW Responsible mapping a World,
Where we belong, Nature swirled –
Among archetypes the Phoenix myth,
To be human is to be with.

FROM hierarchy to Pluralistic thinking,
Peace on Earth with all of Life linking –
Your wide screen Vision is so unbelievable,
So can't be without, thus so achievable.
