

George

Once Infinity began your name,
Nothing could ever be the same –
Stardust galaxies planets suns,
Roots gardens seeds spun.

Grape hyacinth periwinkle ways,
Break of dawn diatonic plays,
Step-by-step honeybee thinking –
Earth emergent morning twinkling.

Sensuous flesh living bone,
Attuned to cries wind her moan,
Cemetery farm skyscraper joint –
Crescendo reaching tipping point.

No bridge yet you could not engineer,
Challenge now paradise from here –
Subconscious difficult wordless strange,
When culture itself requires change.
