hushing rain crackling thunder,
Medieval walls fall asunder –
Life wakes RIVERS emerge,
Garden again with demiurge.

Day before yesterday unimaginable,
History wouldn't let think it possible –
Love birthing anew whole world,
Butterflies wiggling wings unfurled.

house finch sweetness wild flowers,
Living wage for thirty-two hours –
Nesting skills satisfied desires,
Charismatic angelic choirs.

keys spontaneous self-organizing,
Complex system re-prioritizing –
Stressed society regaining health,
Blessed by the rich giving way their wealth.
