Two friends talk into the night,
The ceiling flickers in firelight –
Wall stones listen / time stands still,
As hearthside moments often will.

Garden lovers / feelings show,
The Planet's song in adagio –
Logs shift / sparks shower,
Clarifying logic / telling hour.

From the land of what Story means,
Galactic vignettes / jade word streams –
Adding another split to the fire,
Forest bones / elemental desire.

Inspires finding what's gone missing,
Paints the night more than wishing –
Like the Eukaryotes Self-sacrifice,
Holds open the Gates of Paradise.
