

CRISTAN

Museums libraries shelves books,
MIRROR moments second looks –
Revisiting memories forbidden myths,
Answers a call unexpected drifts.

Sensitive modest you get to talking,
Adaptive imaginative ideas unlocking –
Born the night the moon eloped,
All a storyteller could ever hope.

Encyclopedic repertoire,
Logic learned from falling stars –
Touch of your hand thought of your voice,
Turning time to magic choice.

Thinking twice then on you go,
Well read so you already know –
Double check each narrative,
Only with fairness can true love live.
