

Tony

Beyond believable a Play's allowed,
Fires, flooding, landscapes in shroud –
Worried/undeterred/perfect for the role,
A part in making what's broken whole.

Just when you thought you'd seen it all,
The Horizon opens where once a wall –
Summer green turns crimson leaves,
Unpredictable what's up Time's sleeves.

Hearing/answering/teaching us,
Kindness, especially, how to trust –
Seeing possibility in each our hearts,
Modeling goodness just for starts.

Like the weather the set keeps changing,
Unplanned, unexpected, rearranging –
Saturn suggests being radically honest,
Indispensable for your quest.
